Have your say on proposed changes to the size and Published Admission Number (PAN) of Barrow CE Primary School, Chester

About this document

This document has been produced by Cheshire West and Chester Council to support the statutory public consultation processes with parents, staff, governors, the local community, including neighbouring schools, and other key stakeholders. It seeks the views of all these interested groups on the proposals (which it is anticipated would take formal effect from September 2014) to:

- Enlarge the physical capacity of Barrow CE Primary School to provide the accommodation necessary to enable a cumulative increase in the number of primary-aged pupils from 63 to 98 through the construction of a school hall.
- Increase the Published Admission Number (PAN) of children to 14.

The Local Authority's legal duties

The Local Authority (LA) has a general duty under Section 14 of the Education Act 1996 to secure that there are sufficient schools for providing primary school education in its borough.

To comply with the requirements of the Education and Inspections Act 2006 (EIA 2006) and related legal duties, the LA must carry out consultation prior to making any material changes to the way that schools are organised.

About the school

Barrow CE Primary School is a small primary school which had operated, until the start of the current academic year, with a PAN of nine pupils for each of the seven year groups. Whilst recognising the shortfall in suitable resource space the Local Authority agreed to an increase in the PAN to 10 pupils from September 2013-2014. This increase has in part been made possible because of the fluctuations in cohort sizes that have allowed the school a measure of flexibility in the organisation of teaching and learning. At the end of the 2012-2013 academic year there were 65 pupils on roll. The most recent Ofsted inspection was carried out on 7 December 2012, and found Barrow CE Primary School to be a 'Good' school.

Why is the Council proposing to make these changes?

The proposal to expand the size of the school and increase its PAN has arisen from analysis of the present and future need for primary school places in the rural area to the east of Chester. This has considered the local birth-rate, planned housing developments, parental preference as expressed through the admissions process and the potential demand for places created by the establishment of specialist residential provision for families by the charity 'Save the Family' in Cotton Edmunds. It considered the link between where local primary age children live and where they receive their education in the mainstream maintained sector, and the need to promote sustainable patterns of travel between home and school.

Other issues influencing the decision to proceed with the proposal include;

- The current configuration of the school, which lacks the resource space provided by a hall, has poor quality kitchen facilities and falls short of contemporary standards of suitability.
- Children who have moved into the residential family provision in Cotton Edmunds have experienced difficulty in accessing places at already fully-subscribed local schools.

How is the Council proposing that the expansion of the school would be implemented?

The Council have considered the following issues in formulating proposals for how the expansion of the school's capacity should be implemented:

- How and when building works can take place so as to cause minimum disruption to the life of the school.
- How admissions to the school can be managed to ensure that the objective of meeting local parental preference is best achieved.
- How the admission of additional children can be managed so as to minimise any short term adverse impact upon neighbouring schools.

It is proposed that:

Building works

A detailed feasibility study has been carried out and it is anticipated that funding would be available for construction to start in spring 2014 which should enable completion for September 2014.

Admissions

The school has historically admitted pupils in excess of its PAN when overall capacity within the school has permitted this to be efficiently managed within the organisation of teaching and learning at the school. It is consequently proposed that the school would be permitted to admit up to 14 children into each year group from September 2014 in advance of a formal increase in PAN in September 2015.

Impact on neighbouring schools

The next nearest primary schools to Barrow CE Primary School are all fully subscribed in several year groups and are expected to continue to admit to their current capacity in future years.

How the school would be organised if the proposed expansions take place

The school is currently organised into three mixed age group classes that enable Reception, Year One and Year Two pupils to be educated together in a single class. It is anticipated that as numbers on role rise there will be a future need for these cohorts to be educated across two separate mixed age group classes in order to avoid breaching Infant Class Size Regulations. Ultimately it is envisaged that numbers will justify the appointment of an additional member of staff enabling children to be organised around a single Reception class and three mixed age group classes. The building of a school hall will enable spaces currently used as specialist resource spaces to be integrated into the learning environment of four classbases.

Next steps

Following the consultation, and considering the feedback received, the Executive Member for Children and Young People's Services will be asked to make a decision as to whether the proposals should be progressed, or progressed in an amended form. If it is agreed to progress, a Public Notice (in relation to the proposal to expand the size of the school) will be published. This provides a further opportunity for consultees and the general public to make comment on the proposals before a final decision is made.

A decision to increase the PAN of the school is dependent upon a positive decision to expand the size of the school and will be formalised as part of approving the Local Authority's Coordinated Admission Arrangements.

What further information is available to help me understand the proposals?

The following appendices of information, that have informed the Local Authority's proposals, are attached:

Appendix 1: Number of births within catchment area.

Appendix 2: Parental preferences

What happens to your responses?

All of the responses received during the consultation period are summarised in a report with an analysis of the outcomes of the consultation and recommendations on the next steps. The report is then taken to the Cheshire West and Chester Executive Member who has the following options: to decide not to take the proposals any further, to recommend changes to the proposals in some way or to proceed with the original proposals.

All of the information you provide in your response will be treated in the strictest of confidence and only used for the purpose it was collected.

Thank you for taking the time to respond to this consultation
