

Gazetteer J - Birmingham and Liverpool Junction Canal - Nantwich Junction Bridge (92) to Marsh Lane Bridge (91)

Photograph	Approximate grid reference	Description	Date and designers	Condition	Ownership	Protection
Nantwich Junction Bridge, 92
	SJ 63939 52922	Towpath roving bridge to Basin End. Engineering bricks in English bond with whitewash. Elliptical skew arch with stone edgings to canal. Blue brick paving with raised courses under bridge. 2 cast iron rope guards.	1826, Thomas Telford	Fair	CRT	Grade II listed - 113456, UID 56979.	Nantwich Junction Bridge, 92
Stop gate
	SJ 63937 52924	The single wooden stop gate is in case of breach, or repair work, on the Aqueduct. It isolates the aqueduct from the canal north of it.	1826, Thomas Telford	Good	CRT	Grade II listed - 1138542, UID 56980.	Stop gate
Canal Mile Post
	SJ 63938 52930	Cast iron milepost, typical for the Birmingham and Liverpool Junction Canal. It shows distances from Nantwich, Norbury Junction and Autherley Junction.	1826 Stop gate	Fair	CRT	Grade II listed - 1138543, UID 56981.	Canal Mile Post
Access at Nantwich Junction Bridge, 92
	N/A	As this is a roving bridge, the access is sloped.	1826, Thomas Telford	Fair	CRT	None	Access at Nantwich Junction Bridge, 92
Service Block, former lengthsmen's hut
	SJ 6395 5289	This brick built, former lengthsmen's hut has been extended and converted into a service block for users of the canal.	19th century with 20th century extension	Fair	CRT	None	Service Block, former lengthsmen's hut

Gazetteer J - Birmingham and Liverpool Junction Canal - Nantwich Junction Bridge (92) to Marsh Lane Bridge (91)

Photograph	Approximate grid reference	Description	Date and designers	Condition	Ownership	Protection	Name
Ex hire boat yard
	SJ 6398 5286	This is now the wharf for Nantwich Canal Centre. The boats are moored perpendicular to the canal and so sometimes can cause an obstruction.	Unknown	Fair	Nantwich Canal Centre	None	Ex hire boat yard
Sculpture trail
	N/A	The trail is the culmination of a collaborative Community Arts Project, initiated to celebrate the restoration of the Nantwich Embankment.	Unknown	Good	Unknown	None	Sculpture trail
Spillweir
	SJ 6401 5284	Excess water spills over this spillweir on the offside of the canal. There is not a fence although boats are protected from it by the boat yard.	1826, Thomas Telford	Fair	CRT	None	Spillweir
Access down from the embankment to the road.
	N/A	There are both a slope and steps here. They are hard surfaced with wooden posts and railings.	Unknown	Good	Cheshire East?	None	Access down from the embankment to the road.
Nantwich Aqueduct
	SJ 64203 52578	Cast iron box girder span carried on shallow segmental arch. Concave plain brick abutments. Ornamental cast iron parapet railings. Towpath with horse bricks.	1827-30, Thomas Telford	Fair	CRT	Grade II* listed - 1330146, UID 57006.	Nantwich Aqueduct
Views from Nantwich Aqueduct
	N/A	Looking north west from the aqueduct there is a view of the old A534, Chester Road as it approaches Nantwich. South East, the view is of the A534, Welsh Row, with a comprehensive school (with recycling facilities) and a modern development. There are rope marks on the cast iron railings which can easily be seen when looking down from the aqueduct.	N/A	N/A	N/A	N/A	Views from Nantwich Aqueduct

Gazetteer J - Birmingham and Liverpool Junction Canal - Nantwich Junction Bridge (92) to Marsh Lane Bridge (91)

Photograph	Approximate grid reference	Description	Date and designers	Condition	Ownership	Protection	Name
View of Nantwich Aqueduct from the road
	N/A	It is a very pleasing view of the aqueduct from the road. The trees should be kept cut back so that the view is retained.	N/A	N/A	N/A	N/A	View of Nantwich Aqueduct	from the road
View down Nantwich Bank
	N/A	The embankment is largely grassed and the modern housing can be seen at its base.	1827-30, Thomas Telford	Fair	CRT	None	View down Nantwich Bank
New houses on Marsh Lane, Canal Court
	SJ 64304 51955	These houses were built in 2013 in part of the triangle of land between the embankment and Marsh Lane.	2013	Good	Private	None	New houses on Marsh Lane,	Canal Court
Towpath access, from Marsh Lane
	SJ 6416 5173	This access is almost at the end of the embankment, so is fairly level and suitable for all abilities. It is hard surfaced and wide. This is used by fishermen, walkers and boaters.	Unknown	Good	CRT	None	Towpath access, from Marsh Lane
Canal Cottage
	SJ 6414 5166	This cottage was presumably for the canal worker who looked after the aqueduct and embankment. It is attractive, brick built with a slate roof.	mid 19th century?	Good	CRT?	None	Canal Cottage
Marsh Lane Bridge, 91
	SJ 61441 61539	Whitewashed blue bricks and stone work. Wide elliptical skew on stone base. Cast iron rope guards on both angles of arch. Worn horse bricks on towpath. This bridge carries Marsh Lane over the canal.	c1826, Thomas Telford	Good	CRT	Grade II listed - 1312780, UID 56973.	Marsh Lane Bridge, 91

Photograph	Approximate grid reference	Description	Date and designers	Condition	Ownership	Protection	Name
Stop gate 	SJ 6410 5163	This is the other one to that at Bridge 92 - to be used in case of a breach or work on the embankment or aqueduct.	1827-30, Thomas Telford	Poor	CRT	None	Stop gate	