

If Cheshire West and Chester was a village of 100 people

The graphic above illustrates what the composition of Cheshire West and Chester would be like if it was a village of 100 people based on the information we have gathered from various data sets. Produced January 2017.